Cover Story

Starting with a letter from Wiletta Gooch, I quote. "I am enclosing a picture of the log cabin, and the history of the farm that belonged to J.W.'s (her husband) grandmother, Lucreta Cornelius Gooch and her husband John Wesley Gooch." She also sent a machine copy picture of John Wesley and Lucreta with four of their children. Reproduced on page 29.

"There is a distant relationship of J.W. Gooch to Martha Dandridge Custis Washington. We have traced our Gooch line to Thomas Gooch b. Mattingham Suffolk England, 1537/39." More on pages 28, 29, 30.

Letter to TGF Members

Dear Member/Subscriber,

Last issue I shared with you, my experience at the Library of Congress in Washington DC. During the first part of October, I visited the South Carolina Archives and a brief visit to the University of South Carolina South Caroliniana Library (manuscript division). I spent most of two days in the Archives, with an Aunt and cousin researching several family lines. Also took a grandson, age 15 and granddaughter, age 11 to help and introduce them to skills of research. If you have the opportunity of starting a young person on the trail of genealogical research, do it. However, if they are energetic, they will work you beyond your imagination. Most young boys are especially eager to work the machines. If you go, try to go early. There is some parking at the library but is taken early. There is some street parking but that is feeding meters. I am listing the addresses and main holdings of some of the important sources of information of SC history and its people. If you need more detailed information and do not have easy access to a good genealogy library, just write or call me. I have a copy of the latest edition of Ancestry's REDBOOK, which lists all US states, giving genealogical sources and what is available county by county.

Please keep writing and sending information.

Sincerely, Cecil Daniels, Editor

WHO ARE THESE PEOPLE ?

Picture was submitted by TGF member Sharon Garner whose grand mother was a daughter of Warren Hendricks and Lucinda Jane Gooch, Vol.1, No.3, page 50. I have one one identification, but would like one from the Hendricks family. Results of this will be in a future. If you have a picture you want run, just send a copy that will duplicate well on a copying machine. Editor.

TID-BITS OF GOOCH INFORMATION

From the Bulletin of the Genealogical Society of Old Tryon Co. NC, Vol. XIV, May 1986:

* James Gouge signed a petition in 1790 to form Buncombe County NC.

From 1848 tax list Lumpkin Co. GA:

* James Overton Lewis Sutton as agent for Elizabeth Gouge - 11th Dist, Lot 744
Editor's Note: Tillman Gouge(Gooch) left on the drive to remove the Cherokee's from No. GA, the winter of 1838-39. Never returned.

* Samuel Gouge - 11th Dist. Lot 1196. Editor's note: This is the oldest child of Tillman and Elizabeth (Justice) Gouge(Gooch) Vol.1, No. 1, page 3.

The above items were submitted TGF friend Lanell King, of Dahlonega, Ga. She researches several family lines including, King Grizzles and Gooches.

Farm History

From J.W. and Wiletta Gooch letter

"The first records on this land show that Headright Augustine Co. purchased 640 acres on November 13, 1850. It was later divided into smaller farms. James Simmons purchased 71 1/2 acres of this land in 1855, then it was sold to Martin Baker on February 24, 1855. This cabin was built around 1857. We've always been told that Grandpa Hallmark built it, using the same building plans as all the other cabins that were built around 1857. William M. and Lucinda Cornelius paid $300 cash, and a promisory note for $175 at 10% interest. This note was paid off. After R.J. Hallmark's death, his wife sold her interest in this farm to her son-in-law and daughter, William Marion and Lucinda Cornelius. They had 3 daughters. Their second daughter was Lucreta Mindory Cornelius. She Married John Wesley Gooch." (omitting some details of John's growing up)

John and Lucreta aquired the cabin in 1896 and all their children were raised there. Lucreta died in 1937 but John continued to live there with other family members until he died in 1963, at the age of 93. Restoration on the cabin was finished in 1982 by Mickey and Mildred Cooley. Mildred is a grand daughter of John Wesley Gooch. The log cabin still stands on the farm land located on Log Cabin Road. It is a historical site in Cooke County, Tex. It is furnished as typical farm house of the middle and late 1800's and is opened to the public.

J.W. Gooch of Lubbock, TX relationship to Martha Washington.

Lt. Col Henry Gooch's second wife was Jane Jones. Her brother, Orlando Jones had a daughter named Frances Jones. Frances married Col. John Dandridge. He was a wealthy planter. Their daughter Martha, was born May 1732. At age 17 she married Daniel Parke Custis a Wealthy Virginia planter, 13 years older than she. They had 4 children, 2 died in childhood. She was a young widow age 27 when she met and married George Washington. They cared for two of their grandchildren whose father died in the revolutionary war. They were George and Eleanor Custis. It was George (George Washington Parke Custis) and his famous son-in-law Civil War general, Robert E. Lee who gives identity to the Custis-Lee mansion located in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington,DC. The site of Arlington Nat. Cem. was once Custis then Lee plantation land.

George and Martha never had children of their own. They are buried in the family vault at Mt. Vernon. A trip to Mt. Vernon is well worth the effort. Allow 3 to 4 hours at minimum, and carry good walking shoes to see it all.

DRURY GOOCH

Drury Gooch was born c 1778 in Greenville Co., S.C. His father, James Gooch, had gone to S. C. with his father-in-law, Samuel Kelly, and others from Caswell Co., N.C.

The family appears on the 1790 Greenville Co., S.C. census, the 1800 Spartanburg County, S.C. census and the 1810 Warren Co., Ky. census. Warren Co. became Allen Co., Ky. in 1812.

James Gooch appears on the 1808 Warren Co., Ky. tax list and by 1810 both James and Drury appeared. Drury was 21 years of age in 1810 when he was in Washington Co., Mo. where his cousins Jesse Benton Jr. and Thomas Hart Benton owned land.

Drury's aunt, Nancy Ann Gooch, had married Jesse Benton and the older children from the marriage of William Gooch Sr. and Kesiah Hart were close. Drury named a daughter Nancy Benton Gooch. Nancy was my ancestress. Her obituary shows the relationship to the Benton family.

Drury married Rebecca (Patsy) Whitehead who was a daughter of Robert Whitehead from Orange Co., N.C. Robert Whitehead changed the county seat from Herculanum to Hillsboro, Mo.

Drury, as an Ensign, and Robert Whitehead served in the Washington Co. militia in the War of 1812.

Drury was a constable in Jefferson Co., Mo. in 1829.

None of Drury's brothers or sisters followed him to Mo.

Rebecca died between 1831 and 1836. Sarah was born blind in 1831; possibly as a result of measles which had been contracted from her mother. Drury married Mrs. Nancy Vernon in 1836.

It is said that Drury's second wife was cruel to Sarah. Drury was about to divorce her when she allegedly poisoned him in 1839.

In Drury's will he left $5.00 to each of the six older children and the balance of the estate to the three youngest children and his second wife Nancy and her mentally ill son. She named another of her sons as Executor the estate.

I was impressed with the books left by the estate; the usual Bible, Hymnals, medical books and law books.

By 1841 Mrs. Gooch had married for the third time; she was now a wealthy widow.

Nancy Gooch Benton, born 1758, died January 2, 1837 in St. Louis, Mo. at the home of her son Thomas Hart Benton, the Senator. He died April 10, 1858 in Washington D.C. Jesse Benton Jr. died in Sabine Parish, Louisiana in 1843. He had no children.

Samuel Benton died in 1846 in St. Augustine, Texas. Nathaniel died in Dyer, Co., Tenn. in 1830. Mary died in 1817 in Williamson Co., Tenn. Her three youngest daughters, Margaret, Nancy Anne and Susan all died, 1806-1810, Williamson Co., Tenn., from T.B. They are buried near Hillsboro, Tenn. - "the grave of three sisters".

THE GOOCH FAMILY - OCT.-DEC. 1992

JAMES GOOCH - TIME LINE

James Gooch, b. 1756-1763 Hanover Co. Va.
 m. 1785 - Caswell Co. NC to Elizabeth Kelly
 1790 - In census Greenville Co. SC
 1799 - Sale of land - Greenville Co. SC
 1800 - Jan 31, James of Greenville SC sues heirs of Nathaniel Hart for land in Clarke Co. KY
 1802 - Sale of land - Greenville Co. SC
 1808, 1809, 1810 - On tax list, Warren Co. KY
 1809 - Jan 27, James of Warren Co. KY gave power of attorney to Drury Gooch to recover money due him as heir of Wm Gooch, Sr. Caswell Co. and his brother John C. Gooch.
 1810 - On census in Warren Co. KY
 1811 - Oct. Legacy paid to James Gooch (Submitter questions this) 1818 - Jun. 24, James of Allen Co. KY appointed Jonathan Dorson to see to any monies from estates of Wm. Gooch, Sr. and John C. Gooch, his brother.
 1818-1819 - James paid a note to Thomas Gooch Estate (his brother) of Williamson Co. TN
 1820 - Elizabeth Kelly Gooch shows on Greenville Co. SC census as head of family.

This information was submitted by: Winnie Rampe, address page 31.

Winnie says she found no cemetery, will. estate records for James in either Allen Co. KY or Greenville Co. SC. Possibly he and wife Elizabeth left KY by 1818 when his note of $60 was paid to Thomas Gooch estate or his wife could have paid the note on her way back to SC.

William M. Lynch served in the Civil War with the Desha County Battalion of the Arkansas Militia, serving with the 12 and 13 District. He appears on the Muster Roll dated Loconia, Nov. 28, 1861. Card number 45029272.

Attached to the Muster Roll is the following: A copy of a letter dated Laconia, Nov. 28, 1861, attached to roll is addressed to Gov. H.M. Rector, Commander-in chief of the Arkansas Militia, by T.C. Flournoy, Col. C.D.C.M., and it shows that the court of Desha County, Ark., is accordance with an Ordinance of the State Convention passed in June, 1861, organized the militia of the county according to the following plan: The couy was divided into military districts and a company ordered to be organized in each district. This was done in July, 1861, and all the officers of the Battalion hold commissions from the County Court. If the emergency arises, which may require the services of the Desha County Battalion in the field, a call will be promptly responded to.

HUSBAND	Thomas HOWARD-1507	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Rachel GOOCH-1508	Yr of Birth 1790

HUSBAND - Thomas HOWARD-1507

Thomas Howard was born in Granville Co., North Carolina and married, after growing up, Miss Rachel Gooch and their deaths occurred in their native State, in 1839 and 1857, respectively. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, a farmer by occupation, and he and his wife became the parents of four sons and four daughters, only John C.R. and his sister, Nancy, being now alive.

WIFE - Rachel GOOCH-1508

CHILD 1 - James HOWARD-2066

CHILD 2 - Nancy D. HOWARD-1124

Nancy D. Howard Veazey was of English origin. She was a lineal descendant of John Howard, a noted prison reformer of England. She died in Bradley Co. Arkansas in April, 1896/ She was a member of the Baptist Church.

CHILD 3 - Joseph HOWARD-2067

CHILD 4 - John C.R. HOWARD-1511

John C.R. Howard. Of Granville County, NC, nativity, Mr. Howard from the date of his birth, March 18, 1831, has resided either in his native State or in Bradley County, Ark. His youth and early manhood, however, were passed in the State of his birth, and there he attended the common schools, which favored him with a good practical education. His father, Thomas Howard, was also born in Granville County, and married after growing up, Miss Rachel Gooch, and their deaths occurred in their native State, in 1839 and 1857, respectively. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, a farmer by occupation, and he and wife became the parents of four sons and four daughters, only John C.R. and his sister, Nancy, being now alive. The paternal grandfather, Allan Howard, was born and died in Granville County, NC. The maternal grandfather, Daniel Gooch, was of English descent. John C.R. Howard was married in his native State, in 1853, to Miss Rebecca Gordon, whose birth occurred in Granville County in 1835, she being a daughter of William and Nancy Gordon, also of that county. The father's death occurring there in 1858 and the mother's in Bradley County, Ark., in October 1871. Mr. and Mrs. Howard have had three children born to them: Rachel P.G.(wife of T.A. Berry, a farmer of Bradley County), William T.(who makes his home with his parents) and Samuel L.(also at home). Mr. Howard emigrated from North Carolina to where he now lives, and entered 120 acres of land on which he is residing, but he is now the owner of 280 acres, with about seventy-five under the plow. His property is well improved with good buildings, fences, etc., and in connection with his farm work he gives considerable attention to raising blooded horses and cattle, some of his stock being the finest in the county, and always takes the premium at the county fairs. He is a worth citizen in every respect, and is one of Bradley County's most influential and progressive farmers. Although a Democrat in politics, he was formerly a Whig, and cast his first presidential vote for Zachary Taylor. He is a Master Mason, having become a member of that lodge in 1867, and during the war, being a Southern sympathizer, he joined the Confederate army and served the cause he espoused faithfully for two years, when he was taken sick and was not on duty but very little afterward.

Mr. W. Mac Jones,

Box 344:

Dear Sir:

Referring to my letter to you of Dec. 16, and yours in reply
Dec. 21, 1923:

I wish to get data of Births, deaths, marriages etc, and certified copy of Revolutionary Services (if there be any available)

(1) Of John Snead, Sen. of England, Born: 1698; Died: Jan. 1786.

Married: Who? When? Where?

(2) John Snead, Jr. Born: June 27, 1739; Died Sep. 6, 1793; Married: Mar. 25
1765, to Mary Gooch, Born May 30, 1745.

Who were parents of Mary Gooch,? dates of B:D:M: of her parents and certified record of Revolutionary Service, if any.

John Snead Jr. and Mary Gooch, had children: Janey, Nathaniel, 1766;
Franky, 1768; Molly 1770; Sicely 1772; Garland 1775; John Gooch 1777;
Wm. Claiborne 1778; Nathaniel Claiborne 1780; Keziah Hart 1782; Francis Ann 1784; Tilman 1786; Lavinia 1788; Susan Poindexter 1792--married to John Glass, my grandfather, 1821. (No indication in the above list of race suicide--14 children!)

In the memorandum of Snead names you sent me were "John and John, Jr"
These may be the ones I am looking for.

One of the children above mentioned is John Gooch Snead.

In the Historical Magazine, Jan. 1872, page 22, there is a letter from John Gooch, showing Revolutionary service. Could this be the father of Mary Gooch above?

You mentioned in your letter that you had on hand then an order for the "Gooch Family Record, and their coat of arms". This should make your search for me comparatively easy.

I am enclosing check on my Florida bank, (my permanent address) for $10.00 as retainer, as per your letter, with the request that you make the expense as reasonable as possible.

Very truly yours,

Rev. Jas. G. Glass.

John Snead's father by the same name was born in London Eng., Mar. 1698 and died Jan 1786, prob. in Va. John Snead above was born 27 Jun 1735 in Va. and died 6 Sep 1793, Edgefield Co. SC. Name of John Snead's mother is not known.

Mary Gooch, according to several researchers, parents were William Gooch the Rev. War Patriot from Hanover Co. Va. and Caswell Co. NC, who married first Keziah Hart then Frances Rice. He had 12 children. See Virginia Gooch Watson paper, Vol.2, No.1, page 13. There it states, his first wife is unknown but thought to be Hart. That Mary G. and John Snead named a daughter Keziah Hart, is fair proof of the reasoning. Check also page 15 of Vol.1 for references of this family. James Gooch who married Elizabeth Kelly, is a brother to Mary Gooch. See James Gooch time line page 32. Editor.

Presented in this reduced form because it would take 3 or 4 pages in regular printout. Other surnames associated with this family are: Glass, Cobb, Hart, Lam(b)kin, Dill, Clanton, Palmer, kersh, Blount, Williams, Beam, Redford, Schroder, Beirman, Pringle, Ramsey, Duke, Jones, Marsh, Crews, Thaxton, Allen, Windley, Starr, Reilly, Duren, Dunwoody, Flanigan, and maybe others. I copied 10 pages of the Glass Family papers. Most would not be valuable to most Gooch researchers. However if anyone is interested in the material, I would be glad to send copy of any or answer questions etc.... I certainly did not copy the entire volume. To learn whats there you would need to go to the library or pay a researcher. Editor.

QUERIES

QUERY: V2.6

GOOCH, John L.
_____, Eleanor

Does anyone know date and place of death for John L. GOOCH, son of Rowland and Unity GOOCH of Louisa Co. Va. ? John L. was married to Eleanor, maiden name unknown, but believed to be McCulloch, of Albemarle Co. Va. They resided in Ky., and Eleanor survived John L., who died in the 1820's. Any help would be appreciated.
